ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. The defendant shall participate in the Home Confinement Program for a period of six months. During this time, you will remain at your place of residence except for employment and other activities approved in advance by the United States Probation Office. As instructed by the United States Probation Office, you may be required to maintain a telephone at your place of residence without 'call to forwarding', modem, 'caller I.D.', 'call waiting', portable cordless telephones, answering machines/service, or any other feature of service which would interfere with the operation of electrical monitoring equipment for the above period. You may be required to wear an electronic monitoring device, which may include Global Positioning System and/or Random Tracking, and follow electronic monitoring procedures specified by the United States Probation Office.
- 2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance and submit to a drug test within 15 days of commencement of supervision and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter for use of a controlled substance.
- 3. The defendant shall participate in a mental health program approved by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall pay for the costs associated with the services provided based on a co-payment fee established by the United States Probation Office. Co-payments shall never exceed the total costs of services provided.
- 4. The defendant shall make restitution in the total amount of $66,284.00 to: non-public victims. This obligation shall be joint and several with Donald Hicks in this case, meaning that no further payments shall be required after the sum of the amounts actually paid by all defendants has fully covered the compensable injuries. Payments of restitution shall be made to the Clerk of the Court for transfer to the victims. All criminal monetary penalties are due in full immediately. The defendant shall pay all criminal monetary penalties through the Clerk of Court. If the defendant cannot pay in full immediately, then the defendant shall make payments in monthly installments of at least $100, or no less than 10% of the defendant's gross earnings, whichever is greater, with payments to commence no later than 30 days from this date. Until all criminal monetary penalties are paid in full, the defendant shall notify the Court and this district's United States Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit, of any material charges in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay criminal monetary penalties. The defendant shall notify this district's United States Attorney's Office, Financial Litigation Unit, of any change of mailing or residence address that occurs while any portion of the criminal monetary penalties remains unpaid.
- 5. The defendant shall provide the probation officer and the Financial Litigation Unit (FLU) of the U.S. Attorney's Office with access to any requested financial information. The defendant is advised that the probation office may share financial information with FLU.
- 6. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. The defendant shall immediately notify the probation officer of the receipt of any indicated monies.
- 7. The defendant shall be prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the United States Probation Office so long as there is a balance on the Court-imposed financial obligation.
